

Puerto Notes.

(Correspondence)

Ed. Davis who has just finished digging a well on his place on the plains, struck plenty of water, although we did not learn the depth.

E. S. Gholson and wife were in Puerto last Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Gholson's mother, Mrs. S. W. Hodges.

George Clark's mother, Mrs. W. K. Clark, and also two brother-in-laws of George's, Spears and Naylor, all of Texas, are visiting the Clark family.

Bert Jackson who has been working for George Yates for some time, is now improving his place near Puerto.

George Yates has gone to Mineral Wells, Texas for his health. He has been afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for some time.

The picnic at Puerto which was to occur on the 23rd of this month, has been postponed until sometime in July. It was thought best to postpone it until July for the reason that cattle are too poor to beef now and vegetables are coming on late. The picnic will serve as the formal opening of the Puerto Townsite Company.

The boys of Puerto met last Saturday and organized a base ball team. They say they will accept a challenge with any team in the county.

Jim Griggs has sheared his Angora goats. He has the finest bunch of goats to be found anywhere in Northeast New Mexico.

Oscar Locklear, one of Texico's business men, is improving his claim near Puerto.

Old-timers tell us we have the brightest prospects for good crops this year that they have seen for several years.

According to reports from Grady a railroad is to be built from Texico to Tucumcari by way of Grady in the near future.

About fifty men of our neighborhood have promised to help work the road down Puerto canyon. This will certainly be appreciated by the people of this section, and will be a great advantage to people traveling between Puerto and the plains country.

We learn that the Grady people have had a post office granted them, and that they will ask the government for a daily mail.

Our telephone line is a sure thing and will be built as soon as the material is on the ground.

Dr. J. P. Boggs is talking of putting in a line of drugs at Puerto. The doctor was the leading physician in his home town in Kentucky before coming to Puerto, and has been very successful since he located here last fall.
